Re: Company names of member agencies
Resolution No. 6

---

At the Board of Directors meeting held on 6th January 1989, it was resolved

“That no TIC member agency can engage in any trading activities other than travel and tourism and all Associations must notify members who have ‘and trading’ or any other terminology that implies that a Travel Agency is doing any other business other than travel included in their company names, be deleted by 15th February 1989, otherwise their membership will be revoked and licences suspended.”
