Amendment to the definition of “reasons beyond control”
Resolution No. 136

---

The TIC Board adopted, during a meeting held on 14 June, the proposal put forward by the Outbound Committee to revise the definition of “reasons beyond control” as laid down in paragraph 12 of the Code of Business Practice on Outbound Package Tours as follows:

“Reasons beyond control” mean hostilities, political unrest, natural disasters, pestilences, bad weather, technical problems to transport, changes to the frequency or timetable of any means of conveyance by its operator without advance notice, strikes, industrial action, etc.

This Directive takes effect on 1 July 2005.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
