Note 1: Only those training activities, including but not limited to courses, talks, seminars, workshops and “Knowledge on Hong Kong” Quiz, completed at a fee by tourist guides for fulfilling the requirements of the CPD Scheme for future renewal of their Tourist Guide Licences specified by the Travel Industry Authority (“TIA”) are eligible for the tourist guides to apply for the subsidy under the Training Programme Subsidy Scheme (“Subsidy Scheme”).

Note 2: Unless otherwise specified, the fee of a training activity in this application form refers to the actual fee paid by a tourist guide as evident in the receipt for the payment of the fee of the training activity. Any amount of the fee which has been or will be subsidised or sponsored by any source other than the Subsidy Scheme, and any deducted amount, irrespective of reasons including but not limited to a discount, early bird registration, etc., are EXCLUDED from the amount of the subsidy under application by the tourist guide. Other fees such as travel expenses and board and lodging fees are NOT reimbursable.

Note 3: Each tourist guide is subject to a subsidy ceiling of HK$1,000, and will be subsidised on a reimbursement basis.

Section D List of Supporting Documents Required

The following documents should be attached to the application form:

- The original and photocopy# of the receipt and proof of attendance of the “Knowledge on Hong Kong” Workshop issued by an organisation recognised by the TIC or TIA
- The original and photocopy# of the receipt and proof of attendance of the talk, seminar or workshop relating to professional ethics recognised by the TIC or TIA
- The original and photocopy# of the receipt(s) and proof of attendance of the “Self-selected Course(s)”

# Important Notes:

- If the training activity(ies) is/are organised by the TIC, submission of documentary proof is NOT required.*
- Applicants who submit the application in person are required to present both the original and photocopy of the supporting documents. Those who submit the application by post are required to attach only the photocopy of the supporting documents, and the original copies must be presented to the Secretariat for checking before collecting the subsidy. All the original documents will be returned to the applicants immediately after checking.*

Section E Important Matters

Please put a “✓” in the appropriate box.

I have read, understood and accepted points 1 to 7 listed below:

1. With the full implementation of the new regulatory regime of the travel industry on 1 September 2022, any training activities completed or applications made during the period from 1 September 2022 to 31 October 2022 must be vetted by TIA. Information in this application, including the applicant’s personal data and attendance records and receipts, etc of the relevant training activity(ies) will be transferred to TIA.
2. An applicant must complete and submit the application form, together with documentary proof<sup>1</sup> showing that:
  - (a) the training activity(ies) under application meet(s) the requirements of the CPD Scheme;
  - (b) the training activity(ies) has/have been completed (e.g. the attendance certificate issued by the training institute); and
  - (c) payment has been made by the applicant for the training activity(ies) (e.g. the official receipt of payment for the training activity(ies)).
3. Applications for a subsidy by tourist guides must be submitted within the concession period (i.e. 28 October 2019 to 31 October 2022) to the Travel Industry Council of Hong Kong, Training Programme Subsidy Scheme Secretariat, Rooms 1706-09, Fortress Tower, 250 King’s Road, North Point, Hong Kong. If an application is made by post, please mark on the envelope “Application for the Training Programme Subsidy Scheme (for Tourist Guides)”. Applications which are late or fail to include the required information or documents by 31 October 2022 will NOT be further processed. The stamp-chopped dates on the envelopes will be taken as the receipt dates of applications. Each applicant should ensure that a correct address is clearly printed or written on the envelope, and that sufficient postage is affixed before posting, to avoid unsuccessful delivery of his/her application. Any underpaid mail items will be returned or disposed of by the Hongkong Post, where appropriate.
4. Throughout the concession period, each tourist guide can only submit ONE application for a subsidy, which may include one or more than one training activity that he/she has completed for fulfilling the requirements of the CPD Scheme.
5. The Secretariat may seek clarification, supplementary information and/or supporting document(s) from the applicant, if necessary. The Secretariat reserves the right to NOT further process the application if the applicant fails to provide the required clarification, supplementary information and/or supporting document(s).
6. Information provided in this application will be used for processing the application, statistics, subsidy disbursement and other related purposes. Such information may be disclosed to other government agencies or third parties if such disclosure is necessary for processing the application, statistics, subsidy disbursement and other related purposes, or where the disclosure is authorised or required by law.
7. For correction of or access to personal data contained in this application form, please contact the Secretariat by email (training@tichk.org).

Section F Declaration

I hereby declare that:

1. I have carefully read the “Guide to Application for the Training Programme Subsidy Scheme under the Travel Industry Training Fund (for Tourist Guides)” and agree to comply with all the terms and conditions therein;
2. all information provided in this application form is true and accurate;
3. I have not received any subsidy or sponsorship from any source other than the Subsidy Scheme for the amount of the fee of any training activity under application for a subsidy as listed in Section B of this application form; nor will I apply for any subsidy or sponsorship from any other source when the application is being processed or after the application is approved;
4. I undertake to repay in full to the TIC all the disbursed subsidy under the Subsidy Scheme, with interest (if any), within the time specified in the notification given by the Government or the Secretariat in the event that any information or document provided in relation to this application is found to be false, invalid or inaccurate; and
5. I acknowledge that the Government and the Secretariat reserve the right to take any action deemed appropriate, including but not limited to instituting legal action, against me for providing any false, invalid or inaccurate information or document in support of this application.
